

Please do not make any rules which will interfere with Wisconsin laws that are very effective in protecting citizen rights. Something the FCC has increasingly failed to do. Wisconsin's law is not perfect but it can be made better by expanding coverage to cell phones. Come on, dial up the courage to resist such pitiful hawking for the financial industry.